How it works

1 OFFER

If you send me the following information, I can send you an official non-binding offer:

1. Date of your wedding
2. Which package you would like to book
3. Adress of your styling location
4. When the styling needs to be done by
5. If and how many extra services you need

2 RESERVATION

If you'd like to secure your appointment, I'll send you the reservation form. Your appointment is only guaranteed once you've completed and submitted the form.

3 TRIAL

I usually like to schedule the trial 1–3 months before your wedding. Before the trial, you'll receive an extra pre-trial guide and a questionnaire to fill out.

Am I the right makeup artist for you?

You are detail oriented.

Noticing the little things that others might overlook is a valuable skill, as it shows a high level of attention and care. These seemingly small details often make a big difference when it comes to delivering flawless results. The little things matter a lot to me, and I hope they do to you as well!

You need reliability.

If you choose to work with me, you can count on consistent quality and dependable service every time.

You believe that passion is important in your work.

Makeup and hairstyling isn't just a job for me, it's my true passion. It inspires me to continually grow my skills and knowledge to give the best results for every bride.

You appreciate professionalism, including punctuality, cleanliness, and organization.

- Punctuality is a sign of respect, which is why it's one of my top priorities to always be on time and value your time.
- Hygiene is very important to me because I want to ensure that you're always in a clean and safe environment.
- Organization is key to making sure your appointment runs efficiently and smoothly.

You appreciate a personal, tailored approach.

You're not just a number to me! I pay close attention to the needs of each of my clients and tailor my work to their individual facial features, skin and hair types, and personal preferences.

You connect easily with someone who:

- is friendly and easy to approach
- is patient and calm
- values clear and open communication

You appreciate someone who is trustworthy.

I make it a priority to respect your personal comfort and ensure you feel completely at ease throughout the entire process. I also value confidentiality and treat every client with the utmost discretion.

FAQs

How can I reserve an appointment with you?

If you'd like to book me, simply let me know and I'll send you a reservation form. Once you complete it online, your date is officially secured. I can tentatively hold a date for you before the form is submitted, but it's not guaranteed. First come, first served.

What's the next step once my appointment is booked?

It would be great if we already schedule the date for our trial, about 1-3 months before your wedding.

How does payment work?

At your trial, you'll pay half of your package, either by card or in cash. The remaining balance will be billed to you after your wedding.

How long does the styling/trial take?

I love taking my time with each bride. If you're looking for a very quick styling, I may not be the right fit. I'm detail-oriented and focus on preparing your skin and hair so the style lasts beautifully. For the trial, please allow 3–5 hours, and for the bridal styling, I usually schedule around 3 hours. I can give you a more exact timing after the trial.

Where does the trial take place?

For your trial, it's best to come to my home studio at Podlahagasse 31A, 1220 Vienna, where I have everything we might need. If your schedule is very busy, I can also come to you, with travel added to the package price.

Can you style me for my wedding without a trial?

I only offer bridal stylings without a trial in the off-season (November-March) or Monday-Thursday.

Can I take someone with me to the trial?

Yes, of course! But if the trial is taking place at the homestudio, maximum 2 people.

What is the best way to prepare for the trial?

I will send you a very detailed guide regarding this subject.

Can you also style my flower girls?

Yes, of course! The price is dependent on the effort.

I don't want false lashes or extensions. Is it cheaper?

No, unfortunately not.

What should I do with the extensions if we are using some?

You will get an envolope with my address on it from me. Please send the extenions back, via registered post, at the latest 2 workdays after your wedding.

What happens if you are sick on my wedding day?

The only reason I wouldn't be able to style you on your wedding day is if I were in the hospital. In that unlikely case, I would do my best to arrange a qualified replacement and provide them with all the products needed.

How does the styling process work on the wedding day?

You'll also receive a detailed guide for your wedding morning. A typical schedule might look like this: I need about 15 minutes to set up before I can start styling. If there are several people, I recommend styling the bride second to last. Ideally, we include a 30–60 minute buffer after styling so you have time to get dressed and take 'getting ready' photos if you wish. I then need around 10 minutes to pack up. All styling should take place in one room; if a room change is necessary, please allow at least 20 extra minutes.

Testimonials

Lindsey

Maike!! If I could rate Maike & her work 50 stars instead of 5, I would! From start to finish the process was stress free, easy, and perfect. Her attention to detail and attentiveness to her clients wishes is unmatched. When you walk into your trial, there are details around her studio tailored to you specifically, and the perfect customized touch-up kit available to you on the day. I have never been color matched so well, and Maike was able to answer my endless questions about ideal pre-wedding skin care. She was able to suggest products at every price range that would help, and my skin was in peak condition on the day.

As far as my wedding makeup and hair - exactly as I dreamed, and lasted all evening (and morning!). I danced the night away with my husband and through sweat and happy tears my makeup didn't move an inch. Better yet- I didn't breakout in the days following the wedding despite less than prompt makeup removal. On the day, she came extremely prepared, even so far as bringing an extension cord and light to ensure everyone had enough outlets and light for makeup! Additionally, she was able to do touch-ups and transition my hair into a pulled back and dancing friendly look very quickly.

She is friendly, smart, and fun, and was a great addition to our getting ready group! I couldn't have asked for a better hair and makeup artist for the wedding.

Maike - thank you SO SO SO much :)

Cristina

Maike is an absolute jewel in terms of skills, professionalism and fun!I had Maike as my Make-up Artist/Hairstylist for one of the balls in Vienna after some on-line research and founding her website (truly worth giving it a shot, that was what convinced me to book her).

I have to confess I had no idea what I really wanted, but Maike really did some magic and made me look incredible at the end of our appointment - she really exceeded any expectations I could have had and both my hair and make-up received many compliments. She highlights every single beautiful feature of your face and knows exactly what you need (although you may have no clue as I was). She is very punctual, and what else truly impressed me was the way she works - incredibly clean (I kinda felt in an OR, haha) - which is such a huge asset when you really care about this (especially if you're a bit hypochondriac) - so many one-time-use instruments, wearing a mask, always making sure her hands are clean, etc.

On the other hand, the time I spent with Maike was absolutely incredible - I've never had so much fun at any make-up/hair/nails (and so on) appointment in my life - she is such a fun person, (apart from being a beauty adviser now and then), with some incredible stories and also a person you could discuss more serious topics as well.

I'm looking forward to our future collaborations, moreover since my appointment with Maike convinced me totally to book her as my stylist for my wedding.

In conclusion...

I hope this guide has given you a clear overview. I’m always happy to answer any questions or accommodate any special requests. I would be delighted to be part of your wedding day!
